

Sample Dialogue

A: Hi! It's me!

B: Oh, hi! How are you?

A: Fine. Tell me, what are you doing ¹ this afternoon?

B: I'm not sure. I'll probably ² stay home and read a book. How about you?

A: Well, I'm planning to ³ go fishing. Would you like to join me?

B: Sure. I'd be happy to. Going fishing sounds a lot more exciting than staying home and reading a book.

A: Good! I'll pick you up at around one o'clock.

B: See you then.

Options

I'm not sure.	probably	I'd be happy to.	exciting
I'm not certain. I don't know yet.	most likely	I'd love to. I'd like that.	enjoyable interesting fun

Practice Activity A With a partner, use the information below to make and practice the conversation.

1.	2.	3.
tomorrow morning	work in the garden	play tennis
this weekend	finish my report for class	go for a drive
on Saturday evening	clean my apartment	check out the new department store downtown
this evening	do my homework for English class	see a movie
???	???	???

Practice Activity B Talk with several of your classmates and make plans for this weekend.

Additional Pronunciation Practice: Time Expressions

Present Tense	Past Tense	Future Tense
now	yesterday	tomorrow
at the moment	the day before yesterday	the day after tomorrow
currently	last week/month/year	next week/month/year
at this time/point/instant	the week/month/year before last	the week/month/year after next
at present	two/three/four days/months/years ago	in two/three/four days/months/years
nowadays		later
		in a while in a few seconds/minutes